Our complaints procedure

We want to provide a first class service. If you have any cause for complaint you should, in the first instance, contact either the intermediary who arranged the policy for you, or the branch that issued your policy. Please quote the details of your policy (your surname and initials, policy number, departmental reference, etc).

If you remain dissatisfied with the response, we will refer your complaint to our Customer Relations Team for a separate review. They will notify you once they receive your complaint and will provide you with a final response when they have completed their inquiries.

If we are unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction within 8 weeks, or if we have provided you with a final decision letter, you may be able to refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS). This is a free and impartial service.

You can telephone for free on:

08000 234 567 for people phoning from a "fixed line" (for example, a landline at home)

0300 123 9 123 for mobile-phone users who pay a monthly charge for calls to numbers starting 01 or 02

Or e-mail: complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk

The FOS will only consider your complaint if, at the time of notification, you are a consumer, a business employing fewer than 10 persons that has an annual turnover or balance sheet that does not exceed €2 million, a charity with an annual income of less than £1 million or a trustee of a trust with a net asset value of less £1 million.

Following the Complaints Procedure does not affect your legal rights.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme

We are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation should we be unable to meet our obligations. You may contact the FSCS on 020 7892 7300 or further information is available at www.fscs.org.uk

Law applicable to the contract

UK law allows both you and us to choose the law applicable to the contract. The contract will be subject to the relevant law of the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands relating to your address as will be shown in the schedule. If there is any dispute as to which law applies it shall be English law.

The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

How we will use your data

Zurich Insurance plc holds data in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. It may be necessary for us to pass data to other organisations that supply products and services associated with this contract of insurance. In order to verify information, or to prevent and detect fraud, we may share information you give us with other organisations and public bodies, including the Police, accessing and updating various databases. If you give us false or inaccurate information and we suspect fraud, we will record this and the information will be available to other organisations that have access to the database(s). We can supply details of the databases we access or contribute to, on request.
