

Zurich Plus, powered by Onsi

Your new home for your wellbeing services

Zurich Plus, powered by Onsi, offers a comprehensive suite of health and wellbeing services, all accessible at no additional cost for all Zurich Accident, Health & Travel policyholders, most of them via either voice or video consultations.

Your employees can access support for their mental, physical, and financial wellbeing all in one place via mobile app or desktop.

Support for your mind, body, and finances is now available with Zurich Plus, powered by Onsi.

Support your wellbeing with these services:

Digital GP

GP services from anywhere in the world with Telemedi. Get medical advice, referrals and prescriptions at home or abroad. Access via mobile or desktop, from anywhere in the world.

Digital Physio

Get assessed in as little as 15 minutes, followed by ongoing professional support, powered by Phio.

Mental Health Support

Speak to a professional mental health advisor from anywhere in the world. Access is available via the mobile app or desktop.

Financial Resilience

Calculate your personalised Financial Resilience score and get practical recommendations to help improve your overall financial health.

Financial Support Services

Financial support services on a wide range of subjects from debt management to daily budgeting. Speak to money specialists about handling your mortgage, managing your debt, budgeting and financial planning.

Family Support Services

From everyday parenting challenges to long-term caregiving needs, get professional advice to help you navigate family life with more confidence and balance.

Unlock a world of Health and Wellbeing Support Services, available from anywhere in the world.

Health consultations at no additional cost

(Medical, Physio and Mental Health)

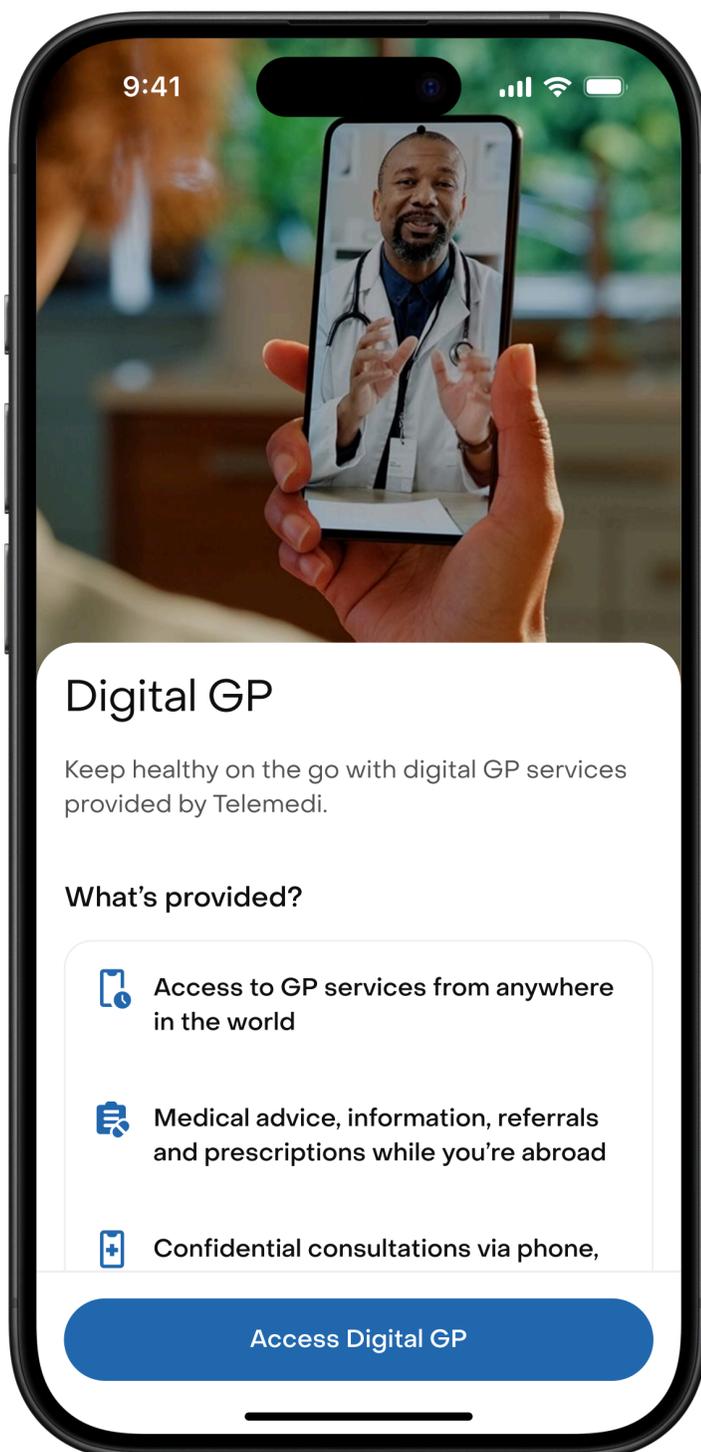

Access medical advice, referrals and prescriptions at home or abroad.

Financial Health Support

Speak to money specialists at no additional cost for financial support services on a wide range of subjects from debt management to daily budgeting.

Family Support Services

Get professional advice to cope with day-to-day or longer-term challenges associated with managing a family and caregiving responsibilities.

Explore your services, all in one place.