

Here when you need us

Dedicated Cancer support services from Zurich
Group Income Protection

Cancer is a devastating disease.

We understand that anyone dealing with a diagnosis needs specialist support, reassurance and care.

And we're here to help.

If you've recently had, or are waiting for, a diagnosis, are going through treatment, are supporting a loved one, or struggling with any aspect of your cancer journey, our experienced nurses are ready to help and support you.

We offer practical advice and caring support including:

- ✓ An explanation of your diagnosis
- ✓ Treatment and what to expect
- ✓ Coping with side effects
- ✓ Liaising with treatment providers and advocating for you

We can also help with other aspects of your life that may be affected by your diagnosis:

- ✓ Financial concerns
- ✓ Decision making discussion and support
- ✓ Health & wellbeing advice
- ✓ Accessing further support

And if all you need is a friendly chat, our nurses are more than happy to do that too.

Support you can rely on

Our experience means you're in good hands, and you can rely on us to help you while you focus on your recovery.

- We'll listen to you
- Once we have a clear picture of your situation, we'll be able suggest and agree the support you need
- We'll discuss your treatment and answer any questions you have
- Maybe there are other things you need help with that haven't been addressed yet
- We can advocate for you with your treatment providers
- If you're struggling with anxiety or have any worries you'd like to discuss, we can help
- We can signpost you to appropriate financial support if needed
- We'll discuss your health, wellbeing and recovery
- We're also here to suggest resources that you can share with your family to help them get the support they need
- We'll be there every step of the way, keeping in touch with you, your employer and your treatment providers throughout

Easy access to invaluable support

If you'd like to speak to one of our nurses, simply speak to your HR team and they'll be able to put you in touch.

We'll contact you to arrange a convenient time to talk and whatever your challenges are, we're here to support you.
