

Your plan and its investment in the with-profits 90:10 fund

This leaflet explains the performance of the with-profits 90:10 fund over the 12 months to 31 December 2018.

Find out more at zurich.co.uk/with-profits.

How's the fund doing?

In the 12 months up to 31 December 2018, the fund return was below our long term expectations due to lower returns on equity and fixed interest investments, partially offset by higher returns on property investments.

- For pension plans the fund return before tax relief on investment losses was 0.5%.
- For life plans the fund return after tax relief on investment losses was 0.6%

These returns don't take account of plan charges. Details of the charges that apply to your plan can be found in your plan documents.

What's happened to regular bonuses?

The regular bonus is unchanged from 2018 and depends on which unit series you're invested in – you can find this on your statement. If your statement doesn't already include details of the regular bonus that applies to your plan, you'll find it online at zurich.co.uk/with-profits.

Bonuses are paid by increasing the fund's unit price, or for pensions series 1, the underlying guaranteed price.

What's happened to final bonuses?

We expect all plans ending in 2019 to get a final bonus. We use these to ensure we pay a fair share of the fund to plan holders as they leave the fund. Where a bonus is paid we expect it to be more than in 2018.

The final bonus rate currently includes an enhancement to allow for distribution of part of the fund's Estate. This is currently 45% of the asset share, increased from 25% in 2018.

We regularly review bonus rates and may change the percentages at any time. While we are not currently applying a market value reduction on early surrender – we may do in future if investment performance falls significantly below our expectations.

What are the fund expenses?

Fund expenses vary across different groups of plans and are taken into account when determining bonus rates each year. During 2018, we reviewed our expenses which have increased. The expenses taken from the fund vary with different groups of plans and after the increase remained on average less than 0.5% of the fund's value.

Has Zurich changed how the fund is run?

The way the fund is managed is set out in the Principles and Practices of Financial Management (PPFM). We didn't make any changes to the PPFM during 2018.

Next year we will inform you of any changes made during 2019. You'll find the current PPFM, together with our yearly report about how we have met our obligations within the PPFM on the website.

How's the fund invested?

We aim to keep around 70% of the fund in fixed interest and variable interest investments.

We also continue to buy protection for the fund against share price falls by using 'options'.

These options help the fund achieve stable returns. In the long-term we expect the investment returns to be similar to those that could have been achieved if we had invested 25% of the fund in shares without using options.

Transfer of Zurich Corporate Savings business to Scottish Widows

During 2019 we plan to transfer the majority of our Zurich Corporate Savings business to Scottish Widows Limited.

We do not expect the transfer to have a material effect on the benefits provided by your policy. We will update you on the outcome of the transfer next year.
